

30 December 1954

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: 29 and 30 December 1954 Briefing of the Task Force on Intelligence Activities.

1. Colonel Lane was intensely interested in the DD/P Administration Staff and its functions -- primarily in the relationship between it and the various component units of DD/A. He remarked that a former survey strongly recommended that DD/P be completely autonomous and divorced from the rest of CIA. In this connection, he asked Colonel White as to the proportion of DD/A that would have to be separated from his present staff if such a contingency were to be effected. [REDACTED]

25X1A

25X1A

2. The other major points of interest were:

- Logistical support
- Personnel management
- Proprietary projects
- Budget
- Project administrative planning

3. After a long and painful session on the subject of logistical support for DD/P projects, Colonel Lane confided in me that the briefers were trying to hold out information and that they evidently were being loyal to their true superiors on the DD/A side. The actual question which was not answered to Colonel Lane's satisfaction was whether DD/P actually had any independence of action in drawing logistical supplies or whether in practically each case it was necessary to get the approval of DD/A.

25X1A

[REDACTED] discussed the matter at length stating that there was some independence of action, but failed to convince the Colonel who later remarked that he knew that such was not the case.

4. Colonel Lane has requested photographs of a number of the charts used in the briefing including those which give a complete breakdown of DD/P personnel and DD/P budget. Except for the one incident mentioned above, the remainder of the session was very well done and well received.

5. Inasmuch as we did not complete the DD/P Admin Staff, it will be necessary to return sometime in January.

30 December 1954

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: 29 and 30 December 1954 Briefing of the Task Force on Intelligence Activities.

1. Colonel Lane was intensely interested in the DD/P Administration Staff and its functions -- primarily in the relationship between it and the various component units of DD/A. He remarked that a former survey strongly recommended that DD/P be completely autonomous and divorced from the rest of CIA. In this connection, he asked Colonel White as to the proportion of DD/A that would have to be separated from his present staff if such a contingency were to be effected. [REDACTED]

2. The other major points of interest were:

Logistical support
Personnel management
Proprietary projects
Budget
Project administrative planning

This document has been approved for release through the HISTORICAL REVIEW PROGRAM of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Date 5/5/92
HRP 89-2

3. After a long and painful session on the subject of logistical support for DD/P projects, Colonel Lane confided in me that the briefers were trying to hold out information and that they evidently were being loyal to their true superiors on the DD/A side. The actual question which was not answered to Colonel Lane's satisfaction was whether DD/P actually had any independence of action in drawing logistical supplies or whether in practically each case it was necessary to get the approval of DD/A.

[REDACTED] discussed the matter at length stating that there was some independence of action, but failed to convince the Colonel who later remarked that he knew that such was not the case.

4. Colonel Lane has requested photographs of a number of the charts used in the briefing including those which give a complete breakdown of DD/P personnel and DD/P budget. Except for the one incident mentioned above, the remainder of the session was very well done and well received.

5. Inasmuch as we did not complete the DD/P Admin Staff, it will be necessary to return sometime in January.